Update on last week's actions:
- Jake still doing the run sheet this week, no time previously
- Proposed AGM time is evening of April 11th
- Every still needs to produce a 1 minute run down of their role for the AGM
- Email has been sent out to members for the hackathon

Friendship House:
- Looking for someone to redevelop a website for this non-profit, very easy project however would not teach much at all.
- List the project as a small volunteering role, however it is not worth considering as a large-scale project.
- Go through guild volunteering and have it listed on their website, that way we will not take the responsibility for the event.

Hackathon Friday:
- Gather everybody's preferred amount of time that they are willing to work.
- Try to ensure that there are approximately 2 people there always, this will ensure there are plenty of hands to help
- Volunteering roles are focused on helping people, in a fluid way. There are no predefined roles but the roles will be defined by the needs of the time.

WAUC:
- Sharing workshops
- Very interested in setting up meet and greet event, between us, bloom and teach for Australia.
- Potential in the future for sharing of members between projects, and between different events
- Meet and greet scheduled for between week 8 and week 10.
